DEAN HABBEGGER JULY 6 - JULY 28, 2024

MICHAEL LITEWSKI JULY 6 - JULY 28, 2024

SACBE - BIPOC CURATORIAL FELLOWSHIP CURATED BY GUSTAVO HERRERA YEPEZ JULY 6 - AUGUST 4

In Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula, the ancient Maya civilization constructed raised paved roads called sacbeob. These sacbeob linked major ceremonial centers and cities across the dense jungle landscape, enabling trade, communication, and the expansion of the Mayan kingdom. Much like the ancient sacbeob facilitated connections and societal progress in Mayan civilization, this exhibition acts as a modern-day sacbe, fostering meaningful connections and highlighting parallels between the contemporary Mayan community of the Yucatan Peninsula and our own communities at home. Showcasing traditional Mayan weaving, this exhibition delves into how communities utilize art and sport to shed light on societal and environmental issues.

Classes are canceled when enrollment minimums are not reached. EAC encourages students to register early. Classes that do not meet enrollment minimums are canceled three days before the first class, and students are notified by telephone. Full tuition will be refunded within three weeks. The Art Center reserves the right to change instructors, class structure, or to discontinue any class without incurring obligations. If a student is unable to attend a class period for any reason, the Art Center is not responsible for providing any make-up. Not attending class does not constitute an official drop or withdrawal from courses or cancellation of tuition or fees.

MISSED CLASSES

A make-up week is scheduled at the end of each term in the event a class session is canceled by the EAC or the instructor. Make-up week is considered part of the term, and no refunds will be given for unattended scheduled classes during this week. There are no refunds, credits or make-ups for any other class sessions that were held as scheduled and missed by the student (student "no-show").
