

ILLNESS DISCLAIMER & CODE OF CONDUCT

Precautions

The Evanston Art Center asks anyone with a fever or cold and flu-like symptoms such as a cough, sore throat, runny nose, or body aches to refrain from visiting the EAC while these symptoms persist.

Testing Positive for COVID-19

- If a student tests positive for COVID-19, please contact the Director of Education immediately:
  - Ellie Hazlett
ehazlett@evanstonartcenter.org
847-475-5300 x.108
- If anyone tests positive for COVID-19 we ask you to refrain from visiting the Evanston Art Center for 10 days after your first positive test.
  - Refund policies for students are waived in the event a student must miss a scheduled class due to COVID-19. Students may be asked for proof of a positive COVID-19 test.

COVID-19 Disclaimer: The Evanston Art Center has implemented required safety precautions and best practices to reduce the transmission of COVID-19. However, such measures do not eliminate the inherent risk of potential exposure to COVID-19 in public spaces. COVID-19 is an extremely contagious disease that can lead to severe illness. By visiting the Evanston Art Center, you voluntarily assume all risks associated with exposure to COVID-19.
