UPCOMING EXHIBITIONS

July 9 – August 21, 2022

Kitchen Table Stories

Artwork by Sarah J Wilson

Curated by 2021/2022 Curatorial Fellow Melissa Raman Molitor

A celebration of stories shared by 29 local artists who identify as Asian, South Asian, and Pacific Islander. The exhibit will center 'care' as an art form that draws on cultural wisdom, ancestral healing and collective power, reflecting on universal themes such as language, food, home, family, and heroes.

July 16 – August 14, 2022

Lea Basile-Lazarus: ENVIRONMENTS

On view: July 16 – August 14, 2022

ENVIRONMENTS features the work of printmaker and paper pulp painter Lea Basile-Lazarus. Moving through the unusual, intersecting "environments" created and heightened during the pandemic and a relocation to the Pacific Northwest, Basile-Lazarus works her reactions and meditations on these changes into her vibrant and richly-textured prints, embossments and paintings.

August 20 – September 25, 2022

Yvette Kaiser Smith: Drifting Inside Traditions

In reaction to Covid lockdowns concurrent with widening divisions within our society, Yvette Kaiser Smith combines dissimilar materials and multiple material and technique languages—acrylic sheet scraps, paper gift bags, industrial felts, and embroidery stitches of various yarns and threads. This work challenges our perception of differences, asking viewers to consider whether we see diversity as a hard difference that leads to the notion of otherness, or as variation within a unified group, others as part of us.

August 20 – September 25, 2022

The Needle's Excellency

Contemporary Needlepoint Created at The Needle's Excellency

From a traditional craft to a contemporary art form, this exhibit features needlepoint artwork from The Needle's Excellency, a local shop in Evanston that carries a wide range of designs, fibers, accessories and needlepoint finishing and framing.

August 27 – October 2, 2022

Layered Meanings

Featuring the work of Sherry Karver, Robert McCann and Lilach Schrag

Though vastly different in their artistic expressions, Sherry Karver, Robert McCann and Lilach Schrag present complex explorations of personal and societal alienation, contradiction and conflict found in modern life.

October 1 – November 6, 2022

Susan Beiner: Hive Expanded

Hive Expanded displays a shift to ideas about installation, covering an expanse of space. Intense brilliant color reveals an obviously artificial man-made reality. The encrustations are abstracted from real plant life, allowing the viewer to proceed into the interior pattern of a stylized manufactured plastic plant life within our environment. We participate in the growth and development of plants, technologically as well as emotionally as we celebrate their bloom.

November 12 – December 18, 2022

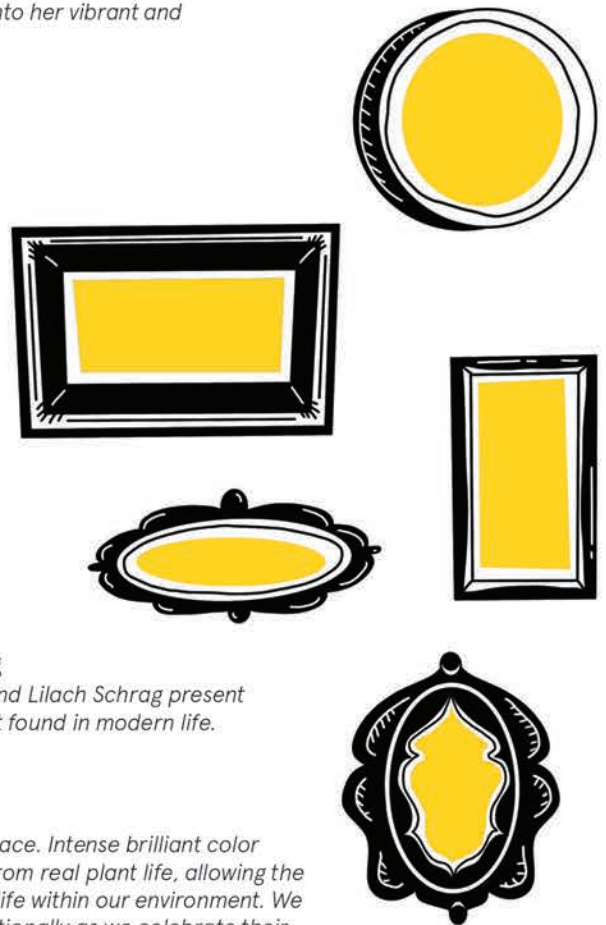

Connie Noyes

A multidisciplinary artist, Connie Noyes has had many notable solo exhibitions and residencies in the US, and has gained international recognition with exhibitions in Germany, France, Austria and the UAE, where she represented Salwa Zeidan Gallery at Art Abu Dhabi. After her father and husband died within days of each other, Noyes' work has been an immersion in mourning research. Regardless of our differences, grief is a common ground. Connecting on this commonality, she brings personal ritual objects out of the studio and into the community to connect in intimate, creative and regenerative spaces for healing.

January 7 – February 12, 2023

David Anthony Geary

Inspired by culture, beauty, science, mythology and experience, the transdisciplinary artist David Anthony Geary is simultaneously engaged in the now, then and still to come. Each piece is a dance between intention and intuition, a process of exchange, discovery and experimentation informed as much by the moments of their creation as the research that precedes them. The portrait specifically serves to explore the nuance of identity.

JEWELRY

All jewelry classes include free, monitored studio time, dependent upon class schedules. No studio time during the first week of classes. Class fees include some materials. Sheet metal is available for purchase at the front desk. Note no open-toed shoes or flowy scarves or clothing are permitted in the Jewelry Studio.

independent study

Advanced Open Studio (AOS) Jewelry Independent Study 3502

Designed for advanced students who want to work on their own or with a small group of advanced students outside of class in unmonitored studio time. To be permitted to work independently in the studio during designated times, students will be trained in five one-hour authorization sessions. After which they will be evaluated and may be allowed to work independently. The AOS Coordinator will arrange rapid-fire demos, class outings, guest artists, and other events tailored to the group's needs and interests. EAC's well-equipped studio will be at your disposal to create, improve your skills, and become part of a supportive artist community!

PRINTMAKING

Printmaking classes include free studio time, dependent on class schedules. No studio time during the first week of classes.

independent study

Independent Study Program: Printmaking 6151

This is for experienced printmakers who want studio access without instruction (a monitor is present). Anyone enrolling must take a studio orientation and adhere to EAC studio policies on materials, clean-up, as well as entrance and exit procedures. We strongly prefer that at least one EAC printmaking course has been taken prior. Independent Study schedules will be announced the first week of class. New enrollees must contact Director of Education or Studio Coordinator Duffy O'Connor prior to registering.

MISSED CLASSES

A make-up week is scheduled at the end of each term in the event a class session is cancelled by the EAC or the instructor. Make-up week is considered part of the term, and no refunds will be given for unattended scheduled classes during this week. There are no refunds, credits or make-ups for any other class sessions that were held as scheduled and missed by the student (student "no-show").

CLASS DISCOUNTS

Refer a friend (first-time student) and receive a 20% discount off the price of one class. EAC's Director of IT and Administration must be alerted when you are introducing a student to an EAC class at the time of registration to receive the discount. Read more on Registration Information and Policies on our website.

CANCELLATIONS

Classes are cancelled when enrollment minimums are not reached. EAC encourages students to register early. Classes that do not meet enrollment minimums are cancelled three days before the first class, and students are notified by telephone. Full tuition will be refunded within three weeks. The Art Center reserves the right to change instructors, class structure, or to discontinue any class without incurring obligations. If a student is unable to attend a class period for any reason, the Art Center is not responsible for providing any make-up. Not attending class does not constitute an official drop or withdrawal from courses or cancellation of tuition or fees.

REFUND POLICY

See schedule above. Students are responsible for notifying the EAC staff that they wish to drop a class; not attending class does not constitute an official withdrawal from courses or cancellation of tuition or fees. Notifying your teacher does not constitute an official withdrawal - you must notify the EAC Director of IT & Administration or Director of Education. (There is no reduced or prorated tuition). There are no refunds or make-up classes for classes students miss. There are no exceptions to the EAC refund policy. Membership is non-refundable.
