

COVID-19 DISCLAIMER & CODE OF CONDUCT

Health & Safety Precautions include:

1. Everyone entering the Evanston Art Center (EAC) is required to fill out a form stating they are free of COVID-19 symptoms. Anyone with potential COVID-19 symptoms will be asked to leave the EAC as a precautionary measure.
2. Everyone who enters the EAC is required to take their temperature. Anyone with a temperature exceeding 100.4°F will be asked to leave.
3. Common areas are regularly disinfected with sanitizer stations placed throughout.
4. Social distancing reminders are posted throughout the EAC.
5. Signage reminding guests and employees of safety precautions recommended by the CDC is posted throughout the EAC.
6. Employees with a fever or cold and flu-like symptoms such as a cough, sore throat, runny nose, or body aches are required to stay at home.

Code of Conduct

The EAC has taken enhanced measures to protect the health and safety of our students, staff, and visitors based on guidance from the Center for Disease Control (CDC), Restore Illinois Phase 3 Guidelines for Day Camps and Retail, and other government agencies. Such measures are detailed on our website. In addition to our standard Code of Conduct requirements, the following are in effect and must be observed by all visitors to ensure a responsible and enjoyable environment for everyone. Any person(s) who violate the Code of Conduct will be asked to leave the Evanston Art Center immediately.

- WHEN DISPLAYING SYMPTOMS of COVID-19 as defined by the CDC, including without limitation fever, cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, we ask that you refrain from visiting the Evanston Art Center. Refund policies for students are waived in the event a student must miss a scheduled class or Open Studio due to COVID-19.
- MASKS must be worn at all times. The use of face coverings should not be seen as a substitute for physical distancing.
- SOCIAL DISTANCING must be observed at all times throughout the Evanston Art Center by maintaining 6 feet between yourself and others who are not part of your household or living unit.

COVID-19 Disclaimer: The Evanston Art Center has implemented required safety precautions and best practices to reduce the transmission of COVID-19. However, such measures do not eliminate the inherent risk of potential exposure to COVID-19 in public spaces. COVID-19 is an extremely contagious disease that can lead to severe illness and death. By visiting the Evanston Art Center, you voluntarily assume all risks associated with exposure to COVID-19.

Thank you for doing your part to reduce the spread of the disease for yourself and others.
