

EXHIBITION GUIDELINES

EVANSTON ART CENTER

MISSION

The Evanston Art Center is dedicated to fostering the appreciation and expression of the arts among diverse audiences by offering extensive and innovative instruction in broad areas of artistic endeavor through classes, exhibitions, interactive arts activities, and community outreach.

VISION

To be widely recognized as a dynamic art education and exhibition center that encourages freedom of artistic expression and enriches cultural life. To be the hub for artistic endeavors, a passionate advocate for the arts, and a valuable partner for arts initiatives.

GUIDELINES

Your work or exhibition will have the best fit with the Evanston Art Center if it helps us fulfill one or more of these goals:

- The EAC exhibits contemporary art and, in particular, new work. We are committed to providing a venue for new artistic ideas and forms. The EAC is committed to showing world class work.

- Artists help us expand our understanding of parts of our identities. The artists represented are diverse in terms of, but not limited to, race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, religion, class, ability, language, nationality, immigration status, and training.

- The media represented at the EAC are diverse.

- The artwork addresses contemporary matters.

- The school at the EAC is an important audience for exhibitions. Students and faculty are also vital sources of artists to include in exhibitions.

- The EAC is committed to the professional development of local artists.

