

STUDENTS OF DISTRICT 65

Bessie Rhodes Middle School students created Pop Art collages.

Inspired by the work of American Pop Artist, Michael Albert, who refers to his work as “Cerealism.” These amazing collages were created using minimal materials: recycled food boxes, scissors and glue.

@EvanstonArtCenter